O God, as we come together for worship, we move from the mundane that is so much a part of our lives, to take time to think again of those things that are eternal for truth and love, for joy and peace, for hope and holiness. And, today may we see again that you bring yourself and all that is eternal into the most mundane experiences of life as we recognize you as our God and Savior. Show us yourself and meet our needs this hour. Amen.
